

Supporting safe housing!

Safe, affordable and accessible housing is fundamental to everyone's success.

The Fairview Trust is a promise that people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) in Oregon can have safe, accessible, and affordable housing.

Meeting Housing Needs of Oregonians with IDD

We envision a world where all people are valued and granted equal opportunity to be members of their communities.

Build public and private partnerships to develop housing

Create set asides for people with IDD in housing developments

Make additional accessibility innovations beyond ADA

Grants in rural areas so people with IDD can stay in their community

$12.9 Million deposited into grant program

$1,924,700 in trust interest helped 1,158 families

$6.9 Million loaned to DHS budget

$6 Million 2017-19 Governor's budget cuts the balance of the trust

$0 left for community housing

2000

2011

2017

When I lived at Fairview, I was sad. Next week, I celebrate 20 years in my own apartment. I am happy. I am glad the trust reminds us that Fairview is gone and the money can help people live on their own like I do.

-Former Fairview Resident, Dec. 18, 2014

